To: the director of HHS,

It is apparent that the Department of Health and Human Services considers pregnancy a disease which must be fought with every mechanical and/or chemical means possible. It is apparent that the department considers the condition of pregnancy something that all Americans want to prevent.

It is also apparent that my tax dollars will be spent where I, a practicing Roman Catholic who is obedient to the teachings of Jesus Christ and His Church.

I do not accept this "mandatory" expense of my tax dollars. Why? because this policy is completely and morally wrong. I can not support this with my tax money by any means.

This change to current policy must be overturned.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Berry
